Summer 2020

Art, Current Events, Exercise, Technology, Tours, Volunteering and more!
Dear Oasis Friends,

The educational theme for this term is “Fact & Fiction” and few topics more fitting than the concept of “healthy aging.” In Hong Kong current female average life expectancy is closing in on 90, while in central Africa it is shockingly 56. Geography matters. Popular culture invokes singular influencers of quality and duration of life: superfoods, stress reduction, exercise, etc. However, what seems to matter most is a broad constellation of behaviors, which often include “first world” resources to which wealthier communities have access.

In St. Louis there is a demonstrated longevity gap across geographies that span just a few miles. The 2014 “For the Sake of All” report included a life expectancy map showing an average lifespan of 67 just north of downtown St. Louis, and 82 in Chesterfield, only 20 miles away. Even more shocking was that life expectancy in Ferguson was 69, and just north of Florissant, a scant five miles away, it increases to 81.

I’ve been asked why growing the reach of Oasis into North St. Louis County and North St. Louis is so important. The answer is that the facts support the need to provide ALL communities with access to programs that inspire successful aging. When you see free exercise and education programs in this catalog, notice the geography of these programs, and consider the investment Oasis is making to offer resources to the communities that need them the most. Registering for a fee-based class at Oasis supports these efforts to expand our reach. But we need support that goes beyond a registration fee. Think about this longevity disparity, and please support Oasis and our efforts to make equal access to these programs and opportunities sustainable across all communities.

Warmly,

Paul Weiss, PhD
President, The Oasis Institute

About Us
St. Louis Oasis is a part of a national nonprofit educational organization designed to enhance the quality of life of older adults in more than 250 communities across the United States. We promote healthy aging through lifelong learning, active lifestyles and volunteer engagement. Our programs create opportunities that encourage personal growth and service to the community. We are a Guidestar Platinum Charity, a member of the S&I 100 Index of top-performing nonprofits and a Better Business Bureau of Eastern Missouri accredited charity.

Membership
As a nonprofit organization, St. Louis Oasis relies on donors, grants and program revenue for financial support. Membership is free!

Office Information
Office volunteers are available to answer questions or assist you with registration. The Oasis office at the Center of Clayton is open Monday through Friday, 9:30am-3:30pm. Have questions? Would you like to become a member or register for a class? Give us a call at 314.862.4859 ext. 24 or visit stloasis.org. To mail in your program registration form, see page 48.

Cancellation
Classes may be canceled due to inclement weather, if the minimum number of class participants is not met or a continuation of meeting restrictions. Please register early for classes to prevent cancellations. In the event of a cancellation, you will be notified approximately one week prior to the scheduled class.

Inclement Weather Policy
When classes are cancelled due to unsafe weather conditions, this information will be listed on KMOX, Fox 2 News and KPLR News 11, as well as the St. Louis Oasis voicemail, website and Facebook page.

Refund Policy
Class fees are non-refundable unless you have a medical emergency or a call to jury duty. Eligible requests must be made within 24 hours prior to the start of program, unless otherwise noted. If Oasis cancels the program, you may choose to either receive a credit to be used on a future course or donate the fee to Oasis.

Oasis Update: Summer 2020

When we began planning Summer 2020 programs, it was an entirely different world from the one we now inhabit. Since then, Oasis suspended in-person programming and began to move toward digital offerings. We are happy to announce that online registration for Oasis summer programs opens Wednesday, May 13th. We have pushed back the start of in-person classes to June. We are not printing the Summer catalog, and encourage you to register for programs online. In the event that quarantine restrictions remain in effect, we will work to offer many Oasis summer programs online via Zoom, a digital meeting platform. Members will have an opportunity to attend their classes from home using a phone, tablet or computer. If your class is converted to Zoom you will receive an email instructing you how to access your class. If you register for a class that will not be made available over Zoom you will be able to have your class fees credited to your account, donate your fees to Oasis, or obtain a refund. We invite you to embrace change and join the adventure!

The House of Medici
Sarah Umlauf, Executive Director of Cultural Festivals and the Saint Louis Art Fair

The Medici family, also known as the House of Medici, first attained wealth and political power in Florence in the 13th century through its success in commerce and banking. Beginning in 1434 with the rise to power of Cosimo de’ Medici, the family’s support of the arts and humanities made Florence into the cradle of the Renaissance, a cultural flowering rivaled only by that of ancient Greece. The Medicis produced four popes, and their genes have been mixed into many of Europe’s royal families. Learn about this famous family and their connection to artworks found at the Saint Louis Art Museum.

Camille Claudel: First Modern Sculptress
Betsy Solomon, MA, Art Historian

“Mademoiselle Camille Claudel daringly took on what may be the most difficult to convey for a sculptor: a dance movement. So that it does not remain frozen in stone, infinite art is required. Mademoiselle Claudel has this art.” (excerpted from a 19th century Salon review) Recognized for her mastery during her time and remembered for her legacy for generations, Camille Claudel achieved inspired innovation in her work. Her sculptures bridge us into 20th century modernity.

Architecture in Context
John Guenther, FAIA, LEED AP
All architecture exists within a given context – physical, historical, and environmental. Buildings are not isolated objects. They relate to adjacent structures and landscapes, intentionally or inadvertently, and enter into a “dialogue” across time between the built environment which exists and the new which will transform it. John C. Guenther, FAIA, LEED AP, will present 16 buildings in St. Louis, from the 1830s to today, which grow out of their context and enhance our city.

Early Renaissance Masters:
Masaccio, Donatello, Botticelli
Betsy Solomon, MA, Art Historian
Beginning in the early 1400s in Florence, Italy, the European world experienced a great flowering of art and intellectual pursuits. Aided by new technical knowledge, artists achieved great heights in painting and sculpture. Three geniuses who helped to invent this new style included painter Masaccio and sculptor Donatello, who reintroduced naturalism to art, and the painter Botticelli, whose elegant linear figures reached a height of refinement.

Feminist Art History
Sarah Umlauf, Executive Director of Cultural Festivals and the Saint Louis Art Fair
The Feminist Art Movement of the 1970s sought to create a dialogue with the viewer through a female perspective. This discussion will look not only at the impact of this movement but will also reflect on the History of Art from a female perspective. The formal study of Art History, like so many subjects before, was dominated by the male voice since its founding. A feminist perspective on the history of Art will examine the disparity between female and male artists throughout time.

The Lodge that Levis Built: Architect Preston J. Bradshaw’s Vision for a Magnate
John Guenther, FAIA, LEED AP

Perched high atop the bluffs of the Mississippi River north of Alton, Illinois is a remarkable little structure. Referred to as “the Tea House” by locals and “the Lodge” by its architect, it is now a Novitiate for the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. “The Lodge” was originally owned by the Levis family, owners of the Illinois Glass Company. According to lore, it was a structure from England, purchased, moved and rebuilt on its current site as a playhouse; “The Lodge” was actually a new structure inspired by English architecture, built in 1934 and designed by noted St. Louis architect Preston J. Bradshaw.

The World’s Fair that St. Louis Made
Andrew Cooperman, Historian

The 1904 World’s Fair, more formally the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, is considered one of the great highlights in St. Louis history. The city and region hosted a world’s fair that brought together the best and brightest from around the planet, who in turn exhibited the best that their countries had to offer. From technology to architecture to manufacturing, to art, to food, the St. Louis World’s Fair allowed fair goers to see the world gathered in Forest Park and marvel at how far civilization had advanced.

Indians of Ancient and Historic Missouri
Jim Duncan, MA

Missouri is at the confluence of the two largest river systems, making it a crossroad in pre-Columbian times for the American Indian people – the First Nations. The archaeology of Missouri provides one of the most exciting overviews of an ancient past. Not surprising, Missouri is also a focus of major cultural developments, especially during the last 10,000 years.

ISHI, the Last Yahi Indian
Carol Diaz-Granados, PhD

This program will begin with an introduction to ISHI, the film, and the man, as well as an overview of early populations. In 1492, there were over ten million American Indians in North America. By 1910, their numbers had been reduced to approximately 250,000! Attendees will then watch the 55-minute documentary about this remarkable American Indian. We’ll end with information about a sensitive issue connected to ISHI, along with a Q&A.

“We Shall Not Be Denied”

The campaign for women’s suffrage began in earnest in the decades before the Civil War. During the 1820s and 30s, most states had extended the franchise to all white men, regardless of how much money or property they had. The women’s rights movement began in the 1840’s when American women realized they needed to organize for their own emancipation which could be done once they had the right to vote.

“Today We March. Tomorrow We Vote.”

The 15th Amendment was ratified on February 3, 1870. For the 1st time the Constitution gave all “men” (white & black) the right to vote. These amendments raised familiar questions of suffrage and citizenship. Some woman-suffrage advocates believed that this was their chance to push lawmakers for truly universal suffrage. Explore the seven decades of campaigning for women’s voting rights in this course.

Milly Sawyers’ Freedom Suit

Before Dred Scott, there was Milly Sawyers, who, along with hundreds of other enslaved persons, sued for their freedom. We have learned many of their stories through court records. Newly discovered documents have revealed Milly’s story. After two unsuccessful suits in St. Louis, she won her freedom in a Greene County court in 1835. Her victory in court did not, however, bring her freedom from violence. She was viciously attacked by an angry mob that included prominent Springfield residents. Meet with a panel of judges and lawyers to discuss why it is important to preserve this history, and how we can learn from it.

Cahokia, St. Louis and the American Revolution in the Trans-Appalachian West
Andrew Cooperman, Historian

Contrary to the popular belief, colonial American history is not confined to the eastern seaboard. The mid-Mississippi River valley also has a very rich colonial history. The French established several settlements on both sides of the Mississippi during the early to mid-18th century. The Illinois French developed a society, culture and economy that were well suited to their mid-American home, and very different from those that the Anglo-Americans developed on the east coast.

In ancient times around the world, story-telling was both an art and an important feature of life— it was not just a past-time. People depended on it to learn about their beginnings, proper behavior, and for learning their cultural heritage. North American Indian stories have been the centerpiece for cultural restoration by anthropologists. Jesuit missionaries began collecting stories as early as the late 16th century. We’ll conclude by telling a few of the lasting oral traditions handed down for generations.

The Smile of Reason: The Era of Enlightenment
Lucy Morros

Belief in natural law, justice and toleration is expressed during the Enlightenment, and this victory of reason is seen in portraits on the faces of the men and women of France. Voltaire glows with the smile of reason. Diderot, D’Alembert and Rousseau are pictured seeing the world with an exhilarating demonstration with the power of ideas. Even women like Madame de Stael and Madame Geoffrin looked pleased with the advance in civilization achieved by respect for feminine qualities. The smile of reason was borne of a range of ideas with powerful effects - the sovereignty of reason, the evidence of the senses as the primary sources of knowledge, and advanced ideals such as liberty, progress, toleration, fraternity, constitutional government, and the separation of church and state. Benjamin Franklin: A Magnificent Life - Foremost Founder
Joan Musbach, MA

Benjamin Franklin's importance in the creation of America cannot be overestimated. He was the pre-eminent colonist and the foremost founder. He was a printer, author, publisher, inventor, scientist, public servant, statesman, diplomat and humanitarian. He was the only American known throughout the colonies and in Europe before the Revolution. He helped write and signed both the Declaration of Independence and The Constitution. Likable and versatile, it is a pleasure to spend time in his company, even in the 21st Century.

"The Troubles Up North"— Catalyst for the Constitutional Convention
Joan Musbach, MA

Taxpayer revolts are nothing new. In 1786-1787 Massachusetts farmers revolted against what they regarded as unfair taxes and were forcibly put down by state militia. The sentiments that propelled Shays's Rebellion spread throughout New England and spread fear among the governing classes. Realization that the existing government was not strong enough to maintain order led to the convening of the Constitutional Convention. Referring periodically to "the troubles up north," delegates to the convention agreed to a United States, rather than a Confederation of States laying the foundation for the government we know today. Explore this catalytic event, the issues that fomented it and its unintended consequences.

The Third American Revolution: 1963-1974
Geoffrey Morrison, PhD

The U.S. has experienced three revolutionary eras. The first, in the 1760s and 1770s, was the American Revolution in which America separated from England, created the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, and inaugurated a democratic-republic in 1788. The second revolutionary era, in the 1860s and 1870s, was during the Civil War which saw emancipation, the Homestead Act and the Industrial Revolution. The third proposed revolution started after John Kennedy's assassination on November 22, 1963 and ended after Richard Nixon's departure from the presidency on August 9, 1974. Vast political, economic and social changes occurred, the effects of which are still being played out in our society. Explore selected aspects of this third revolution, and discuss your own experiences.

Lost Treasures of St. Louis
Cameron Collins, Author

A kaleidoscope of bygone places, events, and items once identified with the Gateway City, Lost Treasures of Saint Louis recaptures the essence of cherished times that still resonate with St. Louisans. The book celebrates dancing to Ike and Tina at the Club Imperial, Bowling for Dollars at the Arena, watching movies at Ronnie’s Drive-In and more. Rarely seen photos and artifacts revive eateries like Miss Hulling’s Cafeteria and the Crystal Palace, landmarks like the Goldenrod Showboat and Sportsman’s Park and locally manufactured products like Mavrakos Candy and Falstaff Beer. Gone but not forgotten, all of the subjects featured elicit nostalgia and also reveal how the past has shaped our city.

Meet the Author: The Last Children of Mill Creek
Vivian Gibson, MA, Author
Marylen Mann, Oasis Founder

Vivian Gibson grew up in Mill Creek, a neighborhood of St. Louis razed in 1959 to build a highway. Her family, friends, church community, and neighbors were all displaced by urban renewal. Meet Vivian and learn how her moving memoir came to be published. Hear her read an excerpt of her book, which recreates the everyday lived experiences of her family, including her college-educated mother, who moved to St. Louis as part of the Great Migration, her friends, shop owners, teachers, and others who made Mill Creek into a warm, tight-knit, African-American community. Reflect upon what it means that Mill Creek was destroyed by racism and “urban renewal.” Marylen will interview Vivian, and there will be opportunities for group discussion and signing and purchase of copies of The Last Children of Mill Creek.

Ginna Rivera, External Affairs Manager, BJC HealthCare
Medicaid expansion is the program that would open health care insurance for people who earn less than $18,000 a year - too much money to qualify for Medicaid but too little money to buy coverage on the insurance exchange. There is a ballot measure that, if passed in November 2020, would ensure that no one will have to choose between paying for life-saving care and putting food on the table or making a mortgage payment to keep their home. Discuss the economic and social impacts of Medicaid expansion to Missouri.

Griot Museum of Black History
Alice McHugh, Oasis Travel Committee

The Griot Museum of Black History is only the second of its kind in the country. It opened as the Black World History Wax Museum in February 1997. Their new name more accurately reflects what they do—collect, preserve, and share the stories, culture and history of Black people. The Griot uses life-size wax figures, other art, artifacts, and memorabilia to interpret the stories of African Americans with a regional connection who have contributed to our country’s development. Visitors can solve puzzles, view documentary videos, and “board” a scale model section of a ship that replicates those used to transport Africans to America during the Transatlantic Slave Trade.

Volunteer Opportunities

Medicare Counselors for MO (CLAIM) and IL (SHIP)

Do you like to learn new skills that may benefit you and your family? Our state certified volunteer Medicare counselors help people understand their Medicare benefits and provide one-on-one assistance in-person or by phone at one of Oasis’ four BJC Hospital office sites. Volunteer counselors are the heart of the CLAIM and SHIP programs. These programs are founded on the principle of neighbors helping neighbors. Nearly any adult can become a volunteer counselor. Many are former clients or retirees seeking a way to serve their community and keep abreast of the changes in Medicare. Oasis volunteer Medicare counselors may also participate in outreach events and program presentations. Training for certification is provided at no cost. Interested and ready for a challenge? Currently, we are seeking volunteer counselors for our offices at Barnes-Jewish Hospital, Christian Hospital and Alton Memorial Hospital. Initial Medicare training classes will be starting soon. Contact Juliet at 314.862.2933, ext. 273 or by email at jsimone@oasisnet.org.

Give 5 Program

Oasis Staff

We invite you to join us, have fun, make new friends and learn about volunteer opportunities that match your talents, passions and personality. Give 5 is a program that matches individuals who are retired or approaching retirement to volunteer opportunities with area nonprofits. Each Give 5 class will meet from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm, once a week for five weeks, visiting nearly two dozen nonprofits over the course of the program. This free program will enable participants to match their skills to nonprofit organizations’ volunteer needs. At the completion of the program, you are asked to volunteer your time and talents for at least one year with one of the organizations you have visited. Give 5 participants must live in Clayton, Missouri.

Oasis Friends

The Oasis Friends program brings together Oasis volunteers and adults with developmental disabilities. The group enjoys a variety of Oasis classes and community events to develop new skills and grow. Typically, there are two outings per month, and they last two to six hours. Volunteers must complete training and a criminal background check. Build lasting friendships while providing a valuable service to the community. Join Oasis Friends! For more information, please contact Sharon Hales at shales@oasisnet.org or 314.220.2827.

This program is sponsored by the Productive Living Board (PLB) of St Louis County.
The City of Clayton, St. Louis Oasis and BJC HealthCare present a variety of ways to help you become healthier and more active. All programs on this page are managed by The Center of Clayton. Oasis members receive the "resident" rate for programs.

To register for classes on this page, please call 314.290.8500.

Essentrics

Essentrics is a full body workout that changes and aligns your body through strengthening and stretching. It develops lean, strong and flexible muscles that change the overall shape of your body and posture. It draws from Tai-Chi, from theories associated with ballet, and the pain-relieving principles of Pilates and physiotherapy.

Location: The Center of Clayton, Fee: $72

SERVICE CHANGES DUE TO COVID-19: Changes, closures and cancellations have occurred to many of Clayton's facilities, meetings, events and services in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. We continue to follow the guidance offered by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), St. Louis County Health Department, and other federal and state authorities.
Intergenerational Tutoring

It’s a Fact! Volunteering is good for you!

Oasis Intergenerational Tutoring is a volunteer program that pairs older adults with children in kindergarten through 3rd grade to work one-on-one each week as their tutors, mentors and friends.

After tutors attend training sessions, they choose from a participating school district in the Greater St. Louis area, and work with the same child each week throughout the school year.

Oasis tutors use a six-step approach to literacy designed by educators that emphasizes improved reading, speaking and writing.

The relationships forged between tutors and students make a profound difference not only for the children, but also for the tutors, many of whom report finding a renewed sense of purpose. Oasis tutors foster a caring, supportive environment where reading and language activities, keyed specifically to each child’s interests, spark curiosity and create opportunities to set attainable educational goals.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the time commitment?
Tutors are asked to meet with the same child, for up to one hour, at least once a week for the entire school year.

Do I need teaching experience?
No. Your enthusiasm, patience and compassion are far more important. As a tutor your roles include mentor, friend and role model.

What age are the students?
The program is designed for children in kindergarten through third grade, a critical period for developing reading and language skills.

What training will I receive?
Tutors complete 10-12 hours of training based on a proven six-part plan of activities that includes talking, reading and writing. You’ll learn ways to draw out the child’s experiences and create simple stories that form the basis for reading activities. You may also attend monthly tutor meetings for continued training and opportunities to share your successes and challenges with other tutors.
So You Want to Be a Tutor?

Attend one of our upcoming information sessions. In each session, there will be an overview of the program, samples of literacy curriculum materials and an informal question/answer opportunity with some of our current tutors. Please note: Sessions are not replacements for tutor training. They serve as brief introductions to the tutoring program. Register for one of our four information sessions listed below. Registration is requested due to limited space.

The world is facing a challenge not seen in our lifetime. Without question, every single one of us has been impacted by COVID-19 igniting a global pandemic threatening public health, the economy, and instigating disorienting changes to the way we live.

Oasis programs reduce social isolation among older adults, which runs contrary to the health risk reduction mandate to maintain social distancing. Although we have suspended all in-person programs nationwide, each Oasis Center has created new opportunities to keep your minds and bodies healthy and active. Oasis is dedicated to staying in touch with our participants during COVID-19.

We are transitioning from in-person classes to an online platform. Zoom Video Communications is the chosen service for all Oasis Centers for its reliability, ease of use and accessibility. It’s free to download to any mobile or desktop device.

Upstate Oasis in Syracuse, NY and Los Angeles Oasis

Tribute gifts are a great way to honor life events or remember someone special. Your tribute gift will help Oasis support its mission to promote healthy aging through lifelong learning, active lifestyles and volunteer engagement. Tribute recipients or their families will receive an acknowledgment card, without reference to amount, to notify them of your gift.

Visit oasisnet.org/donate or contact Emily at 314.862.2933, ext. 261 to make your gift today!

Legacy Circle

All donors who make planned gifts to Oasis are recognized as members of our prestigious Legacy Circle. Being a member of the Oasis Legacy Circle is one of the most important ways that you can express your commitment to the mission of Oasis. The legacy gifts that are listed to the right include donations from October 16, 2019 through February 11, 2020.
